

Neurodevelopmental Disorders Priority Setting Partnership - Final Workshop

September 28, 2017 – 8:30am – 3: 30pm

DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel – 108 Chestnut Street, 25th Floor, Toronto

Workshop objectives:

1. To give an overview of the priority setting process and work so far.
2. To reflect on and discuss the short list of questions for research of neurodevelopmental disorders.
3. In small and larger groups to order the short list by priority, noting areas of agreement and disagreement across groups. To agree together the 10 most important questions.
4. Consider next steps, so that the questions are taken forward for research funding.

08:30	Registration and refreshments.
09:00	Opening session <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Welcome and overview of the JLA and the workshop. Katherine Cowan, James Lind Alliance, workshop Chair. • About the questions. (Jessica Jordao, Ontario Brain Institute) • Short testimonials from 2 Steering Group members (Evdokia Anagnostou, Sue Lynch) • Questions from attendees.
09:50	Discuss priorities: Small group work – participants reflect on and discuss their pre-workshop priorities (3 breakout groups)
10:45	Refreshment break
11:05	First round of ranking: In the same small groups, participants rank the questions.
12:05	Lunch break.
13:00	Review of progress so far: Overview of the combination of all small groups' rankings.
13:15	Second round of ranking: Recommence small group discussions – with different group composition.
14:00	Refreshment break
14:15	Final priority setting session: Aggregate ranking presented – whole group discussion. Final ranking and top priorities agreed.
15:15	Summing up of the day and next steps.
15:30	Workshop concludes.